
Figure LP5. Reference distributions considered in the reward tuning of Langevin processes experiments, where brighter regions indicate higher probability.