
Figure LP5. Reference distributions and reward functions considered in the reward tuning of Langevin processes experiment, where brighter regions indicate higher probability.